Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The only thing missing from this "settlement" is that Mr. Ashcroft isn't apologizing to Bill Gates. I am appalled at the naked attempts by Mr. Ashcroft to subvert the process of justice and I hope he is ashamed of himself for being bought so cheaply by Bill Gates and his flacks. What are you going to do with your 30 pieces of silver, Mr. Ashcroft? This settlement should be laughed out of court and Microsoft needs to be hung on the wall for their antitrust violations.
